BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT OF THE MONTH

THE CHILD ADVOCACY CENTER

The Child Advocacy Center of Northeast Missouri serves child victims of sexual and physical abuse in 14 counties including Warren, St. Charles and Lincoln. Since opening our doors in 2000, our staff and community partners have been the front-line responders to reports of child abuse. Our organization exists to protect children, heal families and prevent abuse. Unfortunately, this past year we have witnessed an unprecedented number of child abuse cases, a 25% increase over last year.

During this special season of giving, The Child Advocacy Center gratefully acknowledges everyone who has been a part of our work this year through volunteering, attending fundraisers, spreading the word about the work we do, and giving financial resources to continue the important mission of assisting children and families in crisis. Because of our community's support, we are able to provide over 1,200 abused children a safe place to disclose of abuse with our forensic interviews, child and family advocacy to the families, mental health therapy for as long as they need to heal, and school and community-based prevention education programs to create awareness and keep kids safe – all at no cost to the family or community.

The Child Advocacy Center is eligible for the Champion for Children Tax Credit. That means donations of $100 or more by an individual or business may qualify you to receive 50% tax credit on your donation, which comes right off your Missouri state income tax liability. Visit www.cacnemo.org/tax-credit for more information.

WELCOME TO OUR NEWEST BOARD MEMBERS

MANDY ANDREWS- WARREN COUNTY RECORD

Mandy lives in Warrenton with her 2 sons. She joined the Record after 15 years in a medical background. She also was a volunteer firefighter for Big Springs and has pursued her EMT certification.

Mandy brings a wealth of knowledge from several fields and she excited to help members of the community in making connections and growing our area's businesses. Thank you, Mandy, for your passion to give back to your community. We are excited to have you as part of our Board of Directors.

JENNIFER WARREN-HOLIDAY INN EXPRESS/ WARRENTON OIL

Jennifer joins us from the Holiday Inn Express in Warrenton. When she's not working, she keeps busy. Her husband and her have 3 kids, 3 cats, and 3 dogs.

She has a background in hotel management working in locations in Hermann and St. Louis before coming to Warrenton. She also has past experience working with Hermann's Chamber of Commerce which will be invaluable as she joins us.

In her industry she sees the growth that is coming to the area. That's why she feels it is important that businesses are working together to attract and retain newcomers to the area. And the Chamber is a great place for networking and learning about new opportunities. Thank you, Jennifer, for your passion to grow Warrenton. We are excited for you to join our Board of Directors.

THE IMPORTANCE OF NON-VERBAL CUES

In the present globalized world it is incumbent upon everyone to have effective communication skills in order to compete with others. Effective communication skills constitute both the verbal and non-verbal signals. Verbal Communication refers to the communication which occurs with the help of words whereas Non-verbal communication refers to the type of communication that does not use words. As a matter of fact, non-verbal communication plays a significant role in our daily life. Surprisingly, more than 90% of all the communication we use every day while sharing information is supported by body language. Hence to become better communicator one should pay attention not only to the verbal communication but also to the body language and non-verbal cues of others. The present article discusses different forms of non-verbal communication in addition to its importance. According to the studies by UCLA professor Albert Mehrabian, body language accounts for 55% of a first impression; 38% comes from tone of voice; 7% comes from our actual words. Hence one should have vivid idea about different cues of non-verbal communication and we should take care of these cues while passing or receiving them.

Non-verbal Cues:

Non-verbal cues include gestures, eye contact, posture, facial expression, space, attire, appearance, distance and mannerisms etc. In this present article of mine I have discussed only four important non-verbal cues namely - gestures, eye contact, posture and facial expression.

1. Eye contact: Robert Whiteside describes eyes as 'the windows of our souls and mirrors of our hearts'. Our eyes will convey the truest and sincere feelings while talking to others. People who do not maintain proper eye contact in the interactions will be suspected of being secretive. Hence, we must maintain eye contact while listening to someone. This will indicate that you are paying attention to what the person is speaking. As a result of this, effective communication is possible without any hurdles.
2. Gestures: Another non-verbal cue is gestures. It refers to the use of fingers, hands, and arms for expression. Without using appropriate gestures a speaker cannot create a good impression in the minds of his listeners. It is important to remember that the gestures should be natural. Be always sure that your gestures are consistent with the verbal message and there is no contradiction at all between these two.
3. Posture: This is considered another component of non-verbal communication. Your posture talks about your personality. By looking at your posture the people will form an opinion in their minds about yourself that what sort of person you actually is - bold, confident and dynamic person or timid, submissive and servile fellow. Always have an eye on your body postures and correct them if they are not appropriate.
4. Facial expression: It is said that the face is the index of the mind. Whatever we think and feel in our heart and in mind may be found on our faces by the opposite people who are interacting with us. Facial expressions reveal our feelings and emotions. Having a cheerful smile on your face will surely give positive signals in the interactions. Do not forget one thing - your facial expression and verbal message should match with each other so as to avoid misunderstandings
